Gandhi's house, situated in Inanda township, now stands as a museum dedicated to his 21 years in South Africa. Gandhi himself said, South Africa was essential to his personal achievements. The racial oppression he felt during the 21 years he spent in South Africa shaped his future. In 1904 Mahatma Gandhi established a settlement at Phoenix devoted to his principles of Satyagraha [passive resistance] and printed his newspaper, the Indian Opinion was printed. After Gandhi's home, the tour will then include a drive through Inanda Township before progressing to Umhlanga Promenade and the pier.

At Victoria Street Market you will be given time to shop for African inspired accessories, clothing, souvenirs, home decorations, paintings and luggage etc. Next to the Victoria Street Market is the Zulu Medicine Market where your guide will take you on an informative tour of "Inyanga (Doctors) lane". The Moses Mabhida stadium has become a defining feature of the Durban skyline. It has a high-rise platform on top of its arch which is accessible by an elevator called the Sky Car for an additional fee. Your tour guide will show you around the exterior of the stadium and will give time to go to the sky platform if desired.

The tour includes a visit to uShaka Marine World's Village Walk on the famous Golden Mile Beachfront on Durban's OR Tambo parade. There you will be given time to shop and have lunch. uShaka Village Walk is home to Durban's most unique shopping experiences, offering a shopper's paradise in an open-air environment, affording guests a world of entertainment, family fun, shopping and dining.
